INVITATION TO JOIN
ECIU CBL COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

Come for the guidance, stay for the community

As we enter a new phase of ECIU, the time has come to revitalize our ECIU Community of Practice.

The CoP has always been a space for teacmhers and other education enthusiasts to connect, share experiences and develop their knowledge of CBL. Now, we're building on this foundation with a new focus: co-creating a practical teamcher toolkit to support the design of CBL experiences across ECIU.

Join us on November 26 | 13:00–14:00 (CET) | Online: link to join

In this first session, we will introduce our new vision and structure for the CoP and, most importantly, hear your ideas about what would be most useful to you.

Our goal is to bring together the knowledge and experiences of our teaching and learning community to develop a toolkit that is both practical and useful. By introducing new resources, sharing best practices and learning from each other, we want to build a collection of guidance, tools and inspiration that helps everyone involved in designing ECIU learning experiences. Along the way, we also want to recognise and highlight the valuable contributions you make to education at ECIU University.

Come along and help shape this community from day one!

With warm regards,
Your ECIU CBL CoP Coordinators
Martina Crehan, Clare Gormley, and Adina Imabayeva
